

HOTEL GUESTS CAUGHT BY SEETHING FLAMES

Ten People Burned to Death and Many Injured in Early Morning Fire Of New Aveline at Ft. Wayne

Many Who Started for Safety Were Driven Back as Stairway and Hallways Were Burning ---Militiamen on Duty.

THE DEAD.

J. W. Deviney, salesman for Crawford & Lehman, Philadelphia.
R. S. Johnson, Pana, Ill.
Morris Hirsch, aged 26, Chicago, brother of I. Hirsch, secretary of Howard club.
J. B. Miller, Sheboygan, Mich.
J. E. Ellis, traveling salesman for Carson, Peirce & Scott, Chicago.
Miss Mary Burket, Mishawaka, Ind.
Miss Sarah Hathaway, matron, Mishawaka, Ind.
One unknown man supposed to be Charles Benjamin of Detroit.
One unknown man, supposed to be Attorney Frank Baxter of Auburn, Ind.

THE MISSING.

R. E. Tribble, Dalhart, Tex.; a ranchman; unknown companion of Frank Baxter of Auburn, Ind.

THE INJURED.

E. M. Mathews of Columbus, O., is the most seriously injured and will probably die. His back is broken.
Nathaniel H. Bell, Miss Anna Block, Miss Margaret Mehan and Miss Agnes Nadeau all employed at the hotel, are among the injured.
A. M. Meth of Pittsburg, Lyman Campbell of Chicago, Charles Falls of Columbus, O., James A. Foster of Calumet, Mich., and George A. Sill of Philadelphia, are all at the hospitals with injuries.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., May 4.—Eleven bodies, four of which are so badly burned that all hope of identification has been abandoned, are lying in the morgue in this city today, as result of the new Aveline hotel horror early Sunday. Fully twenty guests are in the hospitals suffering from burns or injuries received in jumping from windows. It is supposed that at least three more bodies remain in the ruins. Of the injured E. A. Mathews of Columbus, and Miss Agnes Nadeau of Ft. Wayne, will die.

Among the missing supposed to be dead, is R. E. Tribble, a Texas millionaire ranchman. Firemen were badly handicapped in fighting the flames by insufficient apparatus.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., May 4.—Screaming "Fire!" and awakening the guests on four floors of the New Atlantic Hotel, D. J. Leahy, a traveling salesman for Berning Bros., cigar manufacturers, of 25 West Twelfth street, Cincinnati, ran to safety just after he had gone to his room early Sunday morning.
He was the last man to go up in the elevator and had scarcely entered his room when the flames burst forth, caused by the blowing out of a fuse.

The known dead number ten, while three persons are reported missing, and a dozen or more are in hospitals suffering from injuries, some of which may prove fatal.

In an instant the hotel was in flames. The elevator boy, Charles Baird, who had just landed Leahy, was unable to start the elevator down. He rushed down the stairway, yelling fire, and Clerk Hipson, on duty, saw flashes of fire leaping from the basement in gushing blasts.

Ripson rushed to the third floor, grabbed the fire gong and set the alarms in motion. Before the alarm was sounded the elevator was a seething mass and flames were leaping from the shaft into the hallways on the sixth floor.

Carpets and rugs burst into flames instantly, and Hipson had hard work in reaching the third floor in safety.
The register desk and the office floor were already ablaze. He had to flee for his life, but sounded the alarm with each step. The hotel register was burned almost before Hipson's very eyes.

The 65 guests in the hotel were aroused by the first warning of the fire gong. Many were slow in arising and when they opened their doors into the hallway their faces were licked by flames and suffocating smoke.

A few escaped down the stairway, and a mad rush was made to the windows. The three fire escapes could be reached only by the guests in rooms adjoining. There was no escape through the hall. Faces appeared at many of the front windows with veils for mercy.

When the firemen appeared on the scene men were dangling in the air, with hands on a window sill. Ladders were sent up beneath them and most of them were caught.

Newsboys manned a ladder in front of a window where a woman was seen screaming for help. Just as the ladder dropped into the window, the woman fell back in a senseless swoon only to be burned to death on the burning floor.

J. J. Sullivan, Cincinnati traveling man for the Bering Shoe company, was on the fifth floor. He was seen at the window first by firemen and a ladder saved him. His way to the fire escape had been cut off by flames.

W. F. Irwin, of Cincinnati, escaped from the second story by the fire escape. His door was on fire when he left his room.

George Lockhorn, Hyde Park, Cincinnati, was on the fourth floor. He was slightly burned and scorched about the head in his flight down the fire escape, which was being licked by flames when he descended.

The complete destruction of the interior of the hotel makes the work of recovering the bodies a task of multiplied difficulties. A confused heap of charred wood, bricks and twisted girders is piled up between the bare walls to the second story. Piece by piece this must be removed before the roll of the dead can be completed.
Some of the bodies taken out are mangled and charred beyond recognition, and the work of identification is in these cases a task almost baffling. Infantry Company D and Battery B of the National Guard are on duty and aiding the fire and police forces to clear away the debris.

The fire was discovered at 3:30 Sunday morning. The hotel was erected half a century ago and the woodwork was dry as tinder. It burned like match wood, and within a few minutes from the time the fire

RUMOR DENIED AT LAKEWOOD

Lakewood, N. J., May 4.—A rumor circulated here today that former President Cleveland was dead, was indignantly denied at the Lakewood Hotel, where the former executive has been ill for several weeks. No statement as to his condition was forthcoming. Inquirers were referred to Mrs. Cleveland's last statement, in which she declared her husband is no worse.

Despite great efforts of members of the family to keep from the public the exact nature of the illness of Mr.
Cleveland, it was learned on the highest authority this afternoon that not only is he a very sick man, but that he may not recover. It is asserted that he cannot retain medicine on his stomach.

FORMER OFFICIAL WINS SUIT.

Delaware, O., May 4.—Ruling that the city had no right to make an agreement relative to the disposition of fees in state criminal cases, former Chief of Police W. R. Matthews, now of Columbus, was awarded $422.52 in his suit against the city. The city claimed an agreement had been made with Matthews whereby he was to turn over all fees if given a salary of $1000. Judge Wickham held the agreement had no legal basis.

THAW'S ATTORNEYS SCORE IN FIGHT

WITNESSES FOR THAW WILL TESTIFY IN POUGHKEEPSIE
OTHERS IN NEW YORK.

Jerome Will Make Hard Fight to Keep White's Slayer in the Asylum.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 4.—Attorneys for Harry Thaw scored the first blood this afternoon in the fight for his freedom, when they secured a ruling from Justice Morschauer that witnesses who will testify that he is insane shall be heard in court here.
Those who claim he is still insane will be heard in New York, and that county will have to bear the bulk of the expense of the present litigation.

It was admitted at today's proceedings that Jerome will make the hardest kind of a fight to keep Thaw in the criminal insane asylum. To do so he will send commission to London, Rome, Paris, Monte Carlo and Pittsburg to take evidence as to alleged insane acts committed by Thaw in those places. The fight which began today will last for several months it is asserted here. Court has adjourned until May 11, when witnesses will be heard in Thaw's behalf.

MILLIONS

Liberated for Circulation Today by the Reopening of the Union Trust Company.

Providence, R. I., May 4.—More than $3,000,000 that has lain in vaults of the Union Trust company, for six months, was liberated for circulation today when that institution reopened its doors for business. The concern resumes as the Commercial Bank and Trust Co.

When a fellow makes a fool of himself over a girl he is merely saving the girl that trouble or doing it for him.

So long as women marry men to reform them married life will not be monotonous.

amount to $5,000,000.

NATIONAL LEAGUE OF WOMEN WORKERS

New York, May 4.—One hundred and fifty bright eyed and rosy cheeked girls, all members of working women's clubs in Massachusetts, arrived here on the Fall River steamer Priscilla on their way to Washington to attend a convention of the National League of Women Workers.

There were nearly a score of clubs represented in the party. Miss Esther Igar, president of the Sunshine club, told of their object in organization and spoke enthusiastically of their work and what they had accomplished.

"We are not suffragettes," she said with a decision that precluded debate.

DAZZLING SPLENDOR AT CEREMONY

Marks Marriage of Swed- ish Prince to Czar's Cousin Sunday

A ROYAL PROCESSION

Honeymoon Will be Spent in St. Petersburg at the Palace of the Late Archduke Seige.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden, second son of King Gustave, the popular sailor prince, who visited America in 1907, was married yesterday afternoon to Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna, cousin of the Emperor of Russia and daughter of Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovitch.
The ceremony took place at Tsarkoe-Selo, and was accompanied by all the pomp and brilliant display of color characteristic of the most stately court in Europe.

The day was marred by frequent heavy falls of snow, which, however, failed to chill the enthusiasm of the great crowds that gathered around the palace to catch a glimpse of the Emperor and other royal personages and the arriving guests. The crowds stood for hours in the bleak and muddy palace square until the conclusion of the ceremony.

The robing of the bride was performed in accordance with court custom in the private apartments of the Empress. She was dressed by the Empress and the Dowager Empress, assisted by their maids of honor and their ladies in waiting. The bride wore on her head a jeweled diadem, and from her shoulders hung a long trained mantle of strawberry velvet lined with ermine.

In the procession the train of this garment was borne by five court chamberlains. As soon as the bride had been completely arranged Prince Wilhelm was notified by the master of ceremonies and conducted to the inner apartments, where the Grand Duchess Marie was awaiting. A salute of 21 guns and a blare of trumpets announced the start of the procession. At its head came the Dowager Empress on the arm of King Gustave. The Emperor of Russia escorted Queen Olga of Greece.

The Empress was escorted by the Grand Duke of Hesse. Crown Prince Ferdinand and Crown Princess Marie of Roumania were attended by the court ushers and Marshals and other functionaries. Then, arm in arm, came the bridal pair.

Behind the young couple marched Prince Nicholas and Prince Andrew of Greece and their wives, Prince Christopher of Greece and Prince Carl of Sweden and his wife. The guests from foreign courts were followed by more than a score of Russian Grand Dukes and Grand Duchesses, including the three oldest daughters of Emperor Nicholas, Grand Duchess Olga, Grand Duchess Tatiana, the Grand Duchess Marie, the eldest being 13 years old.

After the Emperor had been blessed and sprinkled with holy water he conducted the bridal pair to the dias before the great golden gates of the high altar. The wedding ring was brought from the altar on golden salvers and placed upon the fingers of the bride and bridegroom by the Emperor's confessor.

The Metropolitan then completed the rites of the Russian marriage service, two of the bride's nearest relatives holding crowns over the heads of the bridal pair during the ceremony.

While the Te Deum was being chanted an imperial salute of 101 guns was fired. The procession then turned to one of the ante salons, where the Lutheran marriage ceremony was performed by the Swedish Bishop of Lund. This brought the afternoon program to an end.

The nuptial dinner was served at half past seven o'clock in the evening.
After the dinner the members of the imperial family and their royal guests participated in a polonaise. This stately progress around the great reception hall had something in the nature of the "Hohenzollern torch dance." After this function the guests were driven in state to the Alexander Palace, the private residence of the Emperor, the bridal pair riding with their sponsors in a gala equipage. The Emperor, the Empress and the Dowager Empress were surrounded by torch bearers and escorted by a company of the Emperor's Cossack guard in brilliant blue and scarlet uniforms.

At a late hour in the evening the bridal pair took a special train for St.
Petersburg, where the honeymoon will be passed at the palace of the late Archduke Seige.

BOAT CAPSIZES MANY DROWN

St. Petersburg, May 4.—One hundred and twenty persons were drowned yesterday by the capsizing of a ferry boat crossing the river Dnieper, in Mohilev province.

"We do not want to vote, bear that in mind. If we did we would go about it in a quieter way than the suffragettes do, and we would get it. Men would not deny us a vote if we showed in a quiet way that it would be a good thing for all concerned if we had the franchise. Our organization is for the uplifting of the working women of the country. We want to better their condition for we are 'they' and therefore we are bettering ourselves by organization."

MRS. E. W. SWISHER

Brought Here From Columbus to Have Operation Performed on Right Arm.

Mrs. E. W. Swisher, of Columbus, was brought here Tuesday and taken to the City Hospital, where she will undergo an operation at the hands of Dr. C. H. Stimson, on her right arm, which has been bothering her for several years. About one year ago an operation was performed and it was thought at the time that she would derive great benefit from the treatment. The arm began annoying her again and an examination was made by means of the X-ray which showed that it would be necessary for her to undergo an operation, and it was deemed advisable to bring her here and have the operation performed at the City Hospital. The operation which she is about to undergo will necessitate the removal of one of the bones of the forearm. It will be a very delicate operation as an effort will be made to preserve the peristium of the bone, thus preserving the usefulness of the arm.

PARTY LEADERS MAKING CLAIMS

REPRESENTATIVES OF FINLEY-GARBER AND JOHNSON PEO-PLE CLAIM STATE.

Each Side Making Advance Predictions But Real Test Will Come Tuesday.

Columbus, May 4.—With the delegates all selected and within 36 hours of the opening of the Democratic state convention, the leaders of the Finley-Garber faction claim complete triumph over Mayor Tom L. Johnson and his following, both as to the naming of the state ticket and the control of the organization through the new state central committee.

Representatives of Mayor Johnson claim that he will wrest a victory from the delegates. Johnsonites say their leader made a shrewd move in getting behind ex-Governor James E.
Campbell for endorsement for United States Senator. Through the support of Campbell the mayor hopes to be able to secure in return the support of Campbell delegates against the Finley-Garber crowd. Anti-Johnson men favor M. E. Ingalls for senator and oppose the convention endorsing any candidate for that office.

Finley-Garber leaders say they have fully three-fourths of the delegates on organization and on Harmon for governor and that Johnson will be presented the name of Atlas Pomerene to the convention. Johnson men say Pomerene will be presented and will win.

Some men are so fond of borrowing trouble as to run off with other men's wives.

ESTIMATE KEEPS ON GROWING

Robbers, Loot May Reach at Least Half a Million

ROSHON IS SHADOWED

Scores of Pinkertons and Penn- sylvania Detectives Work- ing on Case.

Pittsburg, May 4.—More gold coin and gold leaf, part of the plunder stolen from the Adams Express car on Thursday night, was picked up on Sunday by boys in the vicinity of Walker's Mills, on the Pan Handle railroad, where the robbery occurred.
Sunday afternoon hundreds of boys and some men as well, searched all over the neighborhood looking for gold and money which might have been "cached" by the robbers.

Scores of Pinkertons are scattered all over the neighborhood. That they are completely at sea was admitted at the office of the Pinkerton agency.
They have a number of clues which they are working on, they say. The officials of the Adams Express company practically admitted that the sum of money stolen was large, but they refuse to give the amount. It is reported, however, that instead of being $80,000, as has been rumored, the sum may reach $500,000.

Sensational developments in the robbery are expected hourly. The seriousness with which the investigation is being carried on and the reticence of the officers who are superintending the search for the perpetrators give color to the story that the loss to the Adams Express company is no insignificant sum, as the public would be led to believe.

Noah H. Roshon, the messenger in charge of the car, who arrived in Columbus Saturday evening for a short visit with his wife, was shadowed in his every move while in the city by Pinkerton detectives from the Pittsburg and New York agencies. He was not told to return to his run, as was reported, but allowed to come to Columbus to see his wife, and get some clean clothes preparatory for a long siege at the Seventh avenue hotel at Pittsburg, to which city he returned at 8:55 Sunday morning.

When he boarded the train in the Union Station Pinkertons were close behind him, and while at the Seventh avenue hotel he will be under their surveillance.

In addition to the Pinkertons employed on the case, detectives from the Pennsylvania east and west of Pittsburg are now searching for the robbers. General Superintendent Grant D. Curtis of the Adams Express company, with headquarters at Chicago, has hurried east and will aid the Pittsburg and New York officials in the work. Nearly every railroad or express man who discusses the robbery is of the opinion that the amount taken will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"It is ridiculous to suppose that there was but $441.74 on First No.
25," said a veteran messenger at the Union Station, Columbus, Sunday night. "This run from New York to St. Louis is the longest the Adams express people have, and I would be willing to bet that this train never, at least in recent years, carried less than $50,000. It is the greatest money train on the Pennsylvania system and is used by the government in transferring money and gold bullion from New York and Washington to the sub-treasuries of St. Louis and the West. The fact that the robbers left $3000 in silver is conclusive proof that they made a big haul, and it is possible that it might have been as high as $300,000."

"Another thing that strikes me as important," he continued, "is the fact that they threw away part of their loot, including diamonds and bars of gold. During the greatest express robbery of a dozen years ago, that first announcement was that $600 had been taken. Later the amount was raised to $1900, but in the trial of the robbers, who were caught, it developed that the amount obtained was $47,000."

FOR STORM SUFFERERS.

Washington, May 4.—The Senate today passed the House resolution appropriating $250,000 for the relief of the storm sufferers in the south. It now goes to the President.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY WALDO PONDRAY WARREN

BLUNDERS ABOLISHED

ANYTHING that will reduce the number of mistakes made by employees is always gladly received by business men who appreciate the extent to which "human frailty" (a charitable synonym for carelessness) causes trouble, dissatisfaction, and a curtailing of net profit.

In a large jobbing house the other day I saw a clever device that is said to be effective. On the inside cover of the order blinders, which accompany every order, there was a sentence, printed in letters half an inch high, as follows:

"Please see that there are no 'blunders' made while this book is in YOUR possession."

The obvious practical value of this caution appeals to one immediately. Certainly, if each person through whose hands the book passed made no blunders there would be none in the whole order, and if each order was filled without blunders there would be none in the whole order-filling department.

"How does it work?" I asked. "Oh, that's a fine thing," said the man. "When we first put that on our order books there was an immediate and noteworthy decrease in the number of blunders made. And the percentage has remained lower than before. Of course, after the men get used to that sign it doesn't make as much impression as it did at first, but the effect is still good."

BURGLARS

TAP THE SAFE OF THE WARD CARRIAGE WORKS AND SECURE $10 IN CASH.

Impertinent to Officers and Gets a Free Ride—Fighters Fined Police Court News.

Amateur burglars got in a little over $10 worth of work at the Ward carriage shops on East Church street, during Saturday night or Sunday and the police department is hot on their trail.

The safe, in the office of the carriage works, which had been left unlocked, was opened and a small steel cash box removed from its position. About $10 in change besides a roll of gold foil worth several dollars made up the booty secured by the robbers.

The police have branded the job as a piece of amateur work and feel pretty sure of landing the culprits soon. They gained entrance through a back door.

A molder, employed at Wehrle's foundry, hid himself to the police headquarters Sunday for a stroll and some information. Considerably under the influence of nectar of joy of a poor variety, the man walked to the patrol station and volunteered some rather saucy remarks to Chief Zergiebel and other officers. He saved patrol fees one way, but won the ride to the city prison, where he drew the regulation prize for drunks Monday morning.

Four fighters who were annoying people about the Panhandle passenger depot were chased by officers, and two of them were captured. They were each fined $5 and costs and committed.

Eight plain drunks made up the total for Saturday and Sunday, and each received the usual fine and costs. Chief Zergiebel has received notices to be on the lookout for three badly wanted men.

A reward of $2,500 is offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Julius Zenskow, who was shot while in a filter plant building of the National Tube company, Lorain, on April 27.

The Detroit police want a Galician Pole who swindled foreigners in that city recently. The man is described as a true sport and a money spender.

Cardenio P. King, weighing 300 pounds, and with stock promoting proclivities, is wanted on 31 counts of larceny, in amount, $25,338. The Boston police are circularizing the country for King.

A Curious Poem.

A short time ago Pope Pius X. gave an audience to a group of distinguished Americans. While they were conversing the reverend gentleman took from a compartment in a nearby desk a piece of paper and, handing it to one of the party, said, "By the way, allow me to present you with a little souvenir of your visit to Pius X." The recipient, upon examining his treasure, found it to be the return coupon of a railroad ticket from Venice to Rome, says the May Bohemian. It was the one purchased by Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto to attend the meeting of cardinals at Rome after the death of Leo. As we all know, he has never returned to Venice.

Status Made of Potatoes.

Yee Hup is the most artistic Chinaman in Philadelphia's Chinatown. By an arrangement of wire and the artistic use of his penknife Hup can make all kinds of statues out of potatoes. Psyche at the Bath, Venus de Milo and heads of great men are among his best creations in this line. He colors them with India ink, and his handiwork is in great demand in the stores of the Tendorloin. Hup is now working on an artistic group which he will call "Washington Crossing the Delaware." He will use about a peck of potatoes in completing this creation.

DEATH CLAIMS NEWARK PIONEER

COL. ISAAC BIGELOW PASSES AWAY SUNDAY EVENING AT 8:30 O'CLOCK.

Was Identified With Early History of the City and Held Many Positions of Public Trust.

Col. Isaac W. Bigelow, ex-mayor of Newark, former councilman, for two terms clerk of the courts of Licking county, and for years one of the most active and prominent characters in the political and commercial growth of Newark, passed away at the home of his daughter, Miss Anna Bigelow, 23 North First street, Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock, as a result of a second stroke of paralysis sustained nearly three weeks ago.

Col. Bigelow was born in Madison county, O., in the year 1829, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bigelow. The family came to Licking county when the Colonel was but six years of age, locating at Jackson town. In 1848 he came to Newark and served in the capacity of assistant to Clerk of the Court Gilbert Brady, until the expiration of the term of Clerk Brady when Mr. Bigelow accepted a position in the bank operated by A. J. Smith. In those days counterfeiting was quite a common practice, and Mr. Bigelow won much creditable attention by becoming quite expert in the detection of counterfeit money. A few years later he engaged in the wholesale grocery business with Dr. Cooper and in 1855 entered the retail grocery field for himself.

The grocery which he operated on the west side of the public square, was sold to Mr. Danzel Miller, and Col. Bigelow then took up active political work being a steadfast tailor in the cause of Democracy and an earnest upholder of its principles.

He served as mayor of the city for two terms being elected to the office by a big majority in 1878 and again in 1882. He was twice elected to the city council the first time as representative of the fifth ward and later chosen to care for the interests of the citizens in the second ward, before the redistricting of the city.

He was elected clerk of the courts of Licking county on two occasions, and served from 1870 to 1876. From 1863 to 1869 Col. Bigelow was recorder of Licking county.

He was also, for 18 years, president of the Licking County Agricultural Society, at the time when the county fair was first instituted.

In 1887, Col. Bigelow accepted a passenger agency on the Chicago & Atlantic road, with headquarters at Marion, O., and he remained with the company, through the time when the road became a part of the Erie system, then he retired from active participation in the strenuous duties connected with railroad life.

Col. Bigelow returned to this city shortly before the holidays, owing to slightly delicate health and the need of rest. During the early part of February he sustained a slight stroke of paralysis, which disabled him to some extent, but remarkable energy and vitality could always be observed in his jovial and hearty greeting to his old time friends and acquaintances about the city.

For the past three weeks he had been confined to his room at the home of his daughter on North First street and since suffering the second stroke of paralysis, had been slowly sinking to the end which came Sunday evening.

During his illness here, Col. Bigelow's popularity among his associates in Marion, and the esteem in which he was held, has been repeatedly manifested in frequent visits and in-

Ability to Make Money Comes From God.

By the Right Rev. ROBERT L. PADDOCK, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Eastern Oregon.

GOD calls some men to be lawyers, whose duty it shall be to see that wise laws are enacted and justice done, as CERTAINLY as he does others to preach the gospel. He calls some men also to be physicians to heal the sick, not by direct methods of his own, but by the use of men—the same plan he follows in converting Africa and Asia. It is a MIRACLE just as truly as were the miracles recorded in the gospels.

HE CALLS SOME MEN TO MAKE MONEY.—A MILLION IT MAY BE IN ONE CASE, A THOUSAND IN ANOTHER. WHATEVER DIFFERENCE THERE MAY BE BETWEEN THE MEN WHO MAKE THESE TWO SUMS IS GOD GIVEN, AND THE MILLION MEN SHOULD REALIZE THAT FACT AND LIVE ACCORDINGLY.

The ideal to be aimed at is that the men capable of accumulating a million dollars or doing heroic deeds, of inventing or discovering new things, SHALL REALIZE THEIR STEWARDSHIP, not only of their talents, but also of accumulations arising from those talents.

Bad Cooking Causes Drunkenness

By Justice SAMUEL GREENBAUM of the New York Supreme Court.

MAN'S PLACE IS BESIDE THE DOMESTIC HEARTH. It is to become the wife and mother of the future that the girl has to look forward. It is a deplorable fact that the domestic duties are so little understood. In this country the cooking is FAR FROM WHAT IT OUGHT TO BE. This fact impresses one particularly in the country districts, where nature has endowed the soil with all that productiveness which should make for IDEAL conditions as to food. Yet the average woman there knows nothing about cooking. The cooking is vile. Children are improperly nourished.

HOW ALEXANDER UNTIED THE KNOT—A TALK TO NEWARK BUSINESS MEN

Alexander the Great was being shown the Gordian Knot. "It can't be untied," they told him: "every man who tried to do it fell down." But Alexander was not discouraged because the REST had flunked. He simply realized that he would have to go at it in a DIFFERENT way. And instead of wasting time with his FINGERS he drew his sword and SLASHED it apart.

Every day a great business general is shown some knot which has proven too much for his competitors, and he succeeds because he finds a way to cut it. The fumbler has no show so long as there is a brother merchant who doesn't waste time trying to accomplish the impossible—who takes lessons from the FAILURES about him and avoids the methods which were their downfall.

The knottiest problems in trade are:

1. The problem of location.
2. The problem of getting the crowds.
3. The problem of keeping the crowds.
4. The problem of minimizing fixed expenses.
5. The problem of creating a valuable good will.

None of these knots is going to be untied by fumbling fingers. They are too complicated. They're all involved together—twisted and entangled over and about each other—so intertwined that they can't be solved singly—like the Gordian knot THEY MUST BE CUT THROUGH AT ONE STROKE. And you can't cut the knot with any sword except the newspaper—because:

1. A store that is constantly before the people makes its own neighborhood.
2. Crowds can be brought from anywhere by daily advertising.
3. Customers can always be held by inducements.
4. Fixed expenses can only be reduced by increasing the volume of sales.

Good will can only be created through publicity. Advertising is breeding new giants every year and making them more powerful every hour. Publicity is the sustaining food of a POWERFUL store and the only strengthening nourishment for a WEAK ONE. The retailer who delays his entry into advertising must pay the penalty of his procrastination by facing more giant competitors as every month of opportunity slips by.

Personal ability as a close purchaser and as a clever seller doesn't count for a hang so long as other men are equally well posted and wear the sword of publicity to boot. They are able to tie your business into constantly closer knots, while you cannot retaliate because there is no knot which their advertising cannot cut for them.

Yesterday you lost a customer—today they took one—tomorrow they'll get another. You cannot cope with their competition because you haven't the weapon with which to oppose it. You can't untie your Gordian knot because it can't be UNTIED—you've got to CUT it.

You must become an advertiser or you must pay the penalty of incompetence.

You not only require the newspaper to fight for a more HOPEFUL TOMORROW, but to keep TODAY'S situation from becoming HOPELESS.

inquiries as to his condition, received from Marion people.

Clerk of the Courts Kleinfelter, of Marion county, and D. Richards, a former Marion associate of the deceased, called upon him only a couple of days ago, to express encouragement and to show their friendship for him and interest in his welfare.

The deceased was married to Miss Melvina Milligan who died in 1865, and whose home was at 22 North First street, when she first became acquainted with the man who later became her husband, and whose death occurred in the same house where their first meeting took place.

The family consisted of five sons and one daughter. The daughter Miss Anna Bigelow, for years a valued clerk in the division B. & O. freight offices here, survives. Three sons remain. Charles is freight agent of the Cotton Belt system with headquarters at St. Louis. Harry Bigelow is route agent of the Wells-Fargo Express company's Belton, Ill. office, while Wm. I. Bigelow, the youngest son, is in business in Massillon, O.

The funeral service will be conducted at the home Wednesday at 2 p. m. by Rev. A. Ramsey, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Granville.

An Old Joke.
My Lord Craven, in King James First's reign, was very desirous to see Ben Jonson, which being told to Ben, he went to my Lord's House; but, being in a very latter'd Condition, as Poets sometimes are, the Porter refused him Admittance, with some saucy Language, which the other did not fail to return. My Lord, happening to come out while they were wrangling, asked the occasion of it. Ben, who stood in need of no-body to speak for him, said, he understood his Lordship desired to see him; you, Friend, said my Lord, who are you? Ben Jonson, replied the other. No, no, quoth my Lord, you cannot be Ben Jonson who wrote the Silent Woman, you look as if you could not say Bo to a Goose. No, cry'd Ben. Very well, said my Lord, who was better pleas'd at the Joke than offended at the affront, I am now convinced by your Wit, you are Ben Jonson.—"Joe Miller's Jest Book," 1739.

was discovered the whole interior of the hotel was a mass of flames that filled the corridors and rooms with suffocating clouds of smoke and laid fiery barriers across all means of escape, save by the windows. The fire department rescued many by means of ladders, but some, frenzied by the onward rush of the flames, leaped from high windows to the pavement.

R. S. Johnson, of Pana, Ill., jumped from the fifth story. His body struck a balcony and bounded far into the street. He was a crushed and bleeding mass when picked up and died a short time later in St. Joseph's hospital.

As the fury of the flames increased men and women were seen in the windows of their rooms where they wildly implored help. Some did not wait for the efforts of the firemen and leaped to the street. Several were seriously injured in this manner. Those who got from their rooms before the flames cut off their retreat were able to make their way to the fire escapes and so were saved with comparative ease. Soon the flames broke from the windows and curled about the fire escapes. Some of the more hardy ones braved the flames and made their way through smoke and flames down the iron stairways.

There were many thrilling escapes. Claude H. Varnell, of the Ft. Wayne baseball team; his sister, Mrs. John Hendricks, and John Hendricks, of Chicago, manager of the Ft. Wayne team, together with Master Hendricks, aged 5 years, barely escaped with their lives. Varnell lost all his personal belongings valued at several thousand dollars. Hendricks, with his wife ahead of him and his boy in his arms, was descending the fire escape from the fifth floor. At the third floor the fire broke out below them. He swung Mrs. Hendricks over the railing, and she dropped to the platform of the story below. He then dropped his son into the waiting arms of his wife, and all made their way to the ground.

Throughout the framework of the interior was of wood, dried like tinder, from half a century's seasoning, and it burned with great rapidity. Within a quarter of an hour from the time the fire was discovered in the elevator shaft, practically the entire building was wrapped in flames. The whole interior became a roaring furnace and from basement to roof all was blazing at once. In rapid succession the floors fell to the basement, carrying their toll of dead. NEWARK SALESMAN

Has Miraculous Escape From Death in the Hotel Fire.

W. D. Tracy, traveling salesman for the Ball-Finch company of this city, had the most exciting experience he ever had while on the road during the big hotel fire. Mr. Tracy, whose home is in Marietta, was on one of his regular trips, and reached Ft. Wayne Saturday. He registered at the New Aveline and was in the midst of the smoke and flames, but by luck escaped without a scratch.

Mr. Tracy was sleeping on the fourth floor of the hotel, and about 3:30 o'clock in the morning was awakened by some one calling for a ladder. Then he smelled smoke and investigated. He glanced down the corridor of the floor that he was on, and saw great billows of smoke, then a gust of wind sent the smoke hurling into his room and he ran to the window for a breath of fresh air.

He realized that it was necessary for him to make up his mind quickly, for the smoke coming through the transom of his door choked and blinded him so that he could barely see. Finally a rift in the clouds of smoke showed him a big telegraph cable about a foot below him and putting on his coat and trousers he plunged from the window.

He caught the cable with both hands and after a short rest and holding by his hands, scores of feet above the sidewalk, he started to move hand over hand towards a pole. He heard a cry and looking above him he saw the form of a man falling towards him. He was unable to swing himself out of the way and the man struck him fairly on the shoulders.

Mr. Tracy's hold was broken and he whirled end over end towards the street below. On a level with the second story of the hotel is a regular net of wires that run into the Postal Telegraph company's office, and into this net both men plunged. They laid there for a few moments and discussed ways and means of escape from their anything but comfortable landing place.

They finally worked themselves along the slender wires until over an area way, then closing their eyes and muttering a prayer, they released their hold and dropped. Two stories they fell and alighted into a various assortment of boxes and crates and marvelously escaped injury. Both men lost all their personal property besides their order books, but are satisfied to have escaped with their lives.

The story told by Mr. Tracy is very vivid and his miraculous escape makes a thrilling miracle. He was in Newark this morning conferring with his employers, but left at noon for his home in Marietta.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE SHOW.

The announcement of the early coming of the biggest of all three ring circus and menageries is always of public interest, for the present modern circus is strictly an American institution, and it is one of the few things that keep old age in touch with childhood. Little ones never forget their first circus parade, the first menagerie or circus that it may be their good fortune to see. When grown up they become tired of the ofttimes disgusting and wasteful sports of adults, and welcome with enthusiasm the visit of the circus, which reminds them of their innocent childhood days.

The announcement of the coming of a big circus of the high standard of merit and excellence of the Carl Hagenbeck and Great Wallace Shows Combined, is welcomed by amusement lovers. The public has learned that this firm does produce all that they advertise and a great deal more. Those who attend always go expecting to see something new, different from the customary acts, and they are not disappointed.

All of the preliminary arrangements have been made and the Carl Hagenbeck and Great Wallace Shows Combined Shows will be here in Newark, on Friday, May 8.

CARDINAL LOGUE RESPONDS TO TOAST TO THE POPE.

DINNER TO CARDINAL LOGUE HOTEL ASTOR, APRIL 30, 1908.

New York, May 4.—Michael Cardinal Logue here, as he naively confessed, without the permission of the Pontiff at all, told at his second speech at the banquet of the men of Maynooth, some of the hitherto unpublished details of the election of the present pope.

It was the very late luncheon of the alumni union of the venerable Irish College in the Hotel Astor that the Primate of All Ireland responded to the toast to the head of St. Peter's See.

"That is a pretty hard task," said the Cardinal. "And when a toast is offered to the Holy Father no one is considered great enough nor sufficient enough to make reply.

"Now, as a matter of fact, I know pretty near as little about the Holy Father as you do. About all that I know is that he was elected canonically.

"The election was consummated a great deal sooner than it might have been if it had not been so hot in Rome.

"That election was hedged about with some of the most pathetic scenes I ever witnessed and I mean this seriously. Ballot after ballot was taken and still no election. Finally when it was certain the present Pope would be elected, he protested and protested, and many persons gathered about him and talked and talked. When the Pope finally knew that the election had fallen upon him he fainted. One of the Cardinals reached into his pockets and produced smelling salts—you know Italian gentlemen have all sorts of conveniences about them. Somebody took the smelling salts and somebody carried up a little round black ball—I don't know what it was—and they revived the Holy Father.

"In all seriousness," continued the Cardinal, "I think that the position of the present Pope is the saddest of any man I ever knew. Think of his years as a parish priest, going about among his people, laboring hard for the poor, who were always his especial care. Then as Archbishop and Patriarch of Venice he was still at work among the poor.

"And think of him now, shut up and away from those he loved and who were his children. Think of him as a prisoner in his little garden. I don't know how big the garden is, for I was never there. Do you know if the lot had fallen upon me I do not know what I should have done. I think though that if I had been elected I should have wasted my chance and jumped out of the window, over the wall, and then have run back to Ireland before anybody could have caught me. I love the Irish and they are my people.

"There was an Irish Pope, and he got away into the mountains, and I believe they never found him."

(By R. V. Sawhill.)

Mansfield, Ohio, May 4.—After four days of inclement weather the Mansfield Tigers were at last able to play, losing out to Newark in a 5 to 3 game. The game was remarkably clean and fast and but for the wildness of the Mansfield pitchers at the start of the game the result might have been different. A large crowd witnessed the contest it being the first opportunity this season that Mansfield fans have had of seeing their favorites in action. It was feared that the authorities would interfere, but these fears proved to be groundless.

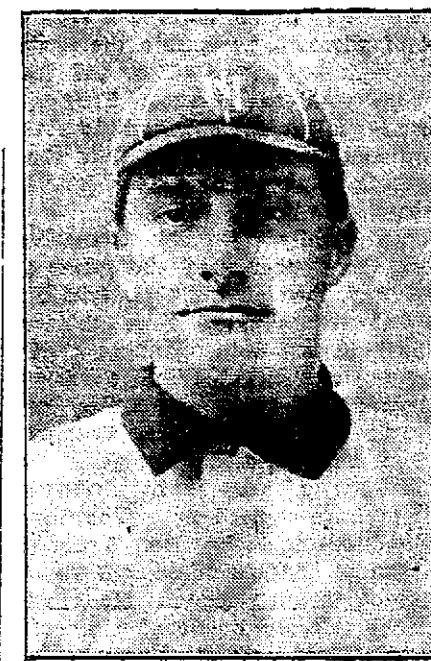

Berryhill selected by Moore to occupy the mound for the Molders and although a little wild at times he pitched a fine game, only allowing four hits and holding the game well in hand at all times excepting in the seventh when the first three men at bat scored. Williams had some trouble in holding on to his fast shoots and in the second let the third strike get away from him, but a lucky double play prevented it from resulting disastrously.

"Pop" Smith had a very busy day at third accepting nine out of eleven chances and also batting in a run with his double in the sixth. Abbott made a swell catch in the seventh, rolling over and over after he had caught the ball. Roth the new man whom Mansfield secured from Newark played a fairly strong game, making one nice stop and accepting all of his four chances. He failed to secure a hit, striking out in the ninth with a man on third.

Phelan started to pitch for Mansfield but after he had passed the first two men up he was derelicted and Bucholz sent to the mound. Two runs were scored on him before he warmed up, but after that he pitched a strong game, weakening however in the last part of the game.

Abbott first up in the first inning, was passed by Phelan and Locke likewise received free transportation to first sack. On his fourth ball, Abbott and Snyder started to pull off a double steal. Allen made an error of judgment and threw to third to catch Doe, when he was already entitled to that base. Flood permitted the ball to get away from him and both men scored. Locke going to second. The next three men were unable to advance him. Only thirteen men faced Buck in the next four innings, Sandy Murray getting Newark's first safe one in the fourth. Snyder, first up in the sixth, singled and was sacrificed to second. Gygli fouled out but Smith landed on one for a double and Lefty crossed the plate. Downing led off with a single in the seventh and Williams advanced him to second, Moore bringing him home with a single to left. Abbott reached first on an error of Flood, but neither man scored as Snyder fled out to Quinn and Locke went out by the Roth-Bieri route.

"BIG FRANK" MOORE.
Mansfield got four hits off him.

Newark scored their fifth and last one in the eighth. For the third consecutive time the first man up, Gygli in this case, led off with a single and was sacrificed to second. Murray brought him home with a single.

Mansfield was unable to get one across until the seventh and Moore had only allowed two hits up to that time. In that inning Kettler led off with his second single and Flood was passed. Channel landed hard on one and it bounced over the center field fence for a home run. Moore settled down and got the next three men, although the crowd pulled hard for him to go up in the air. The Tigers looked dangerous for awhile in the second. Flood was hit as a starter, Channel was struck out but Williams dropped the third strike and then threw wild to second to head off Flood. Tim kept on going but Locke recovered the ball in time to get him at third. Smith returned the ball to Murray and Channel was out. In the ninth Kettler connected up for his third safe one and got around as far as third, but couldn't get any farther as Moore struck out the last man up for the third out. Score:

The Deaf Independents shut out the Newark High school team by the score of 12 to 0, because of the inability to hit McGratton when the men were on the bases. Defeated O. W. U. by the Score of 7 to 4 at Delaware on Last Saturday.

Delaware, May 2.—Ohio Wesleyan won her fifth consecutive game on her home grounds Saturday by a score of 7 to 4. FAST RUN

Made by Special From Zanesville to Dayton by Number of Fans From Zanesville.

A record-run was made on Sunday, May 3, by the Ohio Electrical Railway company from Zanesville to Dayton.

A party of prominent baseball fans of Zanesville chartered car 55, with the contract that as good time be made by the electric as by the steam road. They left Zanesville at 7:55, and arrived in Dayton at 11:55, covering 140 miles in four hours.

This was 45 minutes ahead of the steam car, deducting lay-overs, and averaging per mile 1 minute and 38 seconds. Twenty-three miles of the 140 were through streets of cities.

This is a record. The trip to Columbus from Zanesville of 65 miles were made in 1 hour and 38 minutes. This is 22 minutes ahead of the limited schedule.

Many a man is considered lucky when the secret of his success is that he was born with common-sense.

MISSIONARY HOME FOR CHILDREN

WILL BE BUILT IN GRANVILLE. PLANS HAVING ALREADY BEEN PREPARED.

Building Will be Magnificent Affair, Capable of Housing a Large Number.

Granville, May 4.—For some time past the matter of establishing a Home for Missionary Children in this section of the country by the American Baptist Missionary Union has been agitated. It has finally been decided to establish such a Home and to locate it in Granville, and a fine property—the Israel Wilson place on West Broadway, has been purchased for the premises of the Home. There are already in existence two such homes in the Baptist denomination—one located at Newton Center, a suburb of Boston, Mass., and the other at Morgan Park, a suburb of Chicago. It was found necessary to provide a third such home, and in looking over the country for a location it was unanimously decided that no place offered such advantages for the purpose as Granville. The beauty of situation and its high educational and other advantages contributed to secure this result.

For more than a year much anxiety has been felt as to the source of the necessary money for the building. It is to Dr. W. H. Doane of Cincinnati, the generous benefactor to whom Denison owes its present library building, its Doane Academy Hall, its Doane Gymnasium for young women, and its conservatory pipe organ that this object has effectively appealed. At the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the west, which has just closed at Dayton, Dr. Doane was present, and for the first time exhibited plans of the new structure. The building is found to be a more elaborate and complete one than had been hoped for and it is promised that it shall be the finest building of the kind in existence. It is to be a Colonial structure with fine pillared porch, three stories in height, with hip roof, a basement containing furnace room, laundry, etc. The main building will be 60 x 34 feet, with a wing 20 feet in length, for kitchen and dining room, with servants' rooms above them. In the main building on the first floor will be a splendid reception room and rooms for the matron. On the second and third floors there will be finely arranged bed rooms to accommodate about 40 children, if necessary, besides sewing room, linen rooms, storage rooms and closets, in every room. There will be four or five bathrooms, hot water heating, electric lighting and all the arrangements of a first class structure. Dr. Doane expects to spare no expense in the construction of the edifice. The building will stand on the eastern part of the Wilson property, leaving the present cottage intact.

This is a peculiarly gracious ministry, as it provides a home for the young children of foreign missionaries during the period of the children's lives when it is unsafe for them to remain in Oriental lands. It is not a charity to the missionaries themselves, as they pay the board of their children, but the building and the helpers are provided by the denomination.

There is already a temporary home in Newton, Mass., near the Newton Center Home, which is to be removed to Granville on completion of the new home, and it is understood that there are in addition quite a number of missionary children whose parents are waiting to place them in the home.

The architects of the home are Richards, McCarty & Bulford of Columbus, who have constructed many of the newest Denison buildings.

The Wilson place which has been purchased for the home, consists of about 4 acres of ground on Broadway, just beyond the green house. It contains the romantic dell and spring (so well known by thousands of Baptists all over the country) with the great swing which have constituted a favorite resort of the students and the young people. The garden and the spring and the hillside and orchard at the back of the property will be an

DR. W. H. DOANE.

Dr. W. H. Doane has a reputation extending all over the United States as a philanthropist and as the author of a large number of popular hymns, ten of which are sung all over the country, among them being "Rescue the Perishing," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Tell the Old Story" and many others. For many years he was one of the leading manufacturers of Cincinnati, being president of the J. A. Pay Wood Working Machinery company of that city. He has been one of the most liberal contributors to Denison university, and is held in the greatest veneration by everybody connected with the institution.

unending source of delight to the children, who have already, in their eastern home, received pictures of the property and of Granville, in which they have taken the greatest interest. The Presbyterian denomination has a somewhat similar home at Wooster, the seat of the Ohio Presbyterian college.

Mrs. Dodge, the matron of the home at Morgan Park, Chicago, spent the latter part of the week visiting in Granville, where several who are now students were formerly members of her missionary family. The affection which they hold for her many years after their stay in the home prove how beautiful and important a work this is. The matron has not been finally selected for the Granville home. The home is national in its scope. Dr. Wm. Ashmore, the veteran missionary to China, and other intelligent observers believe that Granville will come to be the principal center for returned American Baptist Missionary families, owing to the presence of the home, the university and the admirable social and religious surroundings at Granville. Already the tendency has been shown in the recent coming to Granville a residence of one or more years of such missionary families as those of Wm. Ashmore, Jr., Rev. Henry Topping, Rev. W. Sweet, Rev. F. J. Dye and Rev. J. W. Carlin.

The Women's Baptist Missionary society of Granville held a remarkable meeting at the Baptist church last Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. C. J. Rose, conducted the services and the special topic of the day, "State Mission Work," was presented by Mrs. Goodell, who introduced Rev. C. J. Rose to speak upon his work. Reports of the Dayton meeting were briefly given by Mrs. E. W. Hunt and Mrs. C. J. Baldwin. Beautiful selections of music were rendered by the ladies chorus, which had been admirably trained by Mrs. W. P. Ulman for such occasions. At the close of the session which lasted about two hours, coffee and cake were served. There were 110 persons present, including a generous sprinkling of the men of the church, a number of visitors from the Newark Baptist church, and Pastor Bennett of the Fifth Street Baptist church of Newark, and Rev. David Dempster of the Granville Pres-

Woman Becomes Despondent Thinking Son Was About to Leave Home and Takes Carbolic Acid.

Mrs. John Stamm, residing on South Pine street became despondent Sunday morning and attempted to take her life by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid. Her eighteen-year-old son had declared his intention of leaving home to secure work and this so prayed on the mother's mind that in a fit of mental abstraction she tried to do away with herself.

She was sitting on the bed at the time and her husband discovered her with the bottle to her lips and succeeded in knocking it from her hands. Her mouth was burned as was also the side of her face where the acid struck it. Dr. W. B. Nye, corner of Pine and Mahoning streets, was called and succeeded in quieting the woman and easing the pain caused by the burns. Monday morning she was resting comfortably and no bad effects are anticipated.
